-Mr. A. Virden has added a new feature to his business. Goods ordered from him will be sent to any part of the city, free of charge, and parties desiring to order may do so through the driver of the wagon, who is supplied with an order-book for that purpose.

-The Tanz-Verien ball comes off at Camellia Hall on Friday night. It is given in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Dameron, Mr. and Mrs. Wirt Adams, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. G. Y. Freeman. The arrangements are in the hands of young gentlemen who will of course make the occasion a success.

-The five gentlemen who have expressed a willingness to invest five thousand dollars in reviving the State Fair, on condition of a bonus of three thousand dollars from the community, will re tire from the project unless the bonus i subscribed within two weeks from this date. Inasmuch as the bonus is to be used for premiums, the proposition appears to be a reasonable one.

...The Telephone Exchange has extended its connections to W. A. Whiting's tore and residence, the residences of R. M. Dameron and Geo. S. Green, and Col. Hemingway's stock farm-making a total of seventy-six telephones in operation. It would be quite a convenience to the public if the Express office could be reached through the Exchange.

-On yesterday evening at 5 o'clock it St. Peter's church, Mr. John Warner, of Canton, Miss., led to the altar Miss Sarah Edwards, daughter of Mrs. P. O'Leary, of our city. A number of friends in Jackson and from a distance were in attendance, and all join in wishing them a long, happy and prosperous wedded life.

"May no thought of sorrow, check their joys, 'Neath Hymen's rosy bower."

-We had the pleasure a few mornings since of meeting Miss Lizzie Lonegan, a bright and interesting young lady from Jackson, who now has charge of the telegraph office at this place. We would be glad to see more of our yourg ladies turn their attention to this new field of operation that is now being opened up for them and for which they are so eminently fitted.—Raymond Ga-
